

Marek Konwa

I am Marek Konwa and I was born on 3 November 1990 in Wilkanowo, Poland. For couple of years now I have been training mountain biking professionally and I am a member of Polish national mountain biking team. My interest in sport blossomed in 2003 and since then it is an integral part of my life.

Cycling: adventure of my life

The first race I took part in was a local competition held nearby Zielona Gora, which I finished taking second place. Thanks to belief in my own strengths, I overcame many experienced and better-equipped opponents. That's how my passion was born. Beginning regular trainings in Trasa-Zielona Gora club I had only one goal - to be the winner. Soon, first important successes came and I won a number of races in Poland. Victories encouraged me to try harder and work better.

My goal: the Olympic medal

Being on the top makes me compete with the best cyclists not only in Poland, but in the whole world. I am a multiple Polish National Champion in MTB and cyclocross. Winning a Silver Medal at the World Championships in 2011 is one of my most significant successes. Nevertheless, I decided to dedicate my life to cycling and focus on the most important goal: winning the Olympic medal.
